Studio Announcement

Great news! DIP is offering students the opportunity to learn solos, duets, or trios to add to your dance repertoire.

Why and what are the benefits?

- Gain confidence. It is fulfilling to go through the process of learning something by yourself and achieve your goals alone. You will come away feeling like you can tackle any challenge.
- Learn about your skills and abilities. Your choreographer will create the style that will suit you and let you shine. You will discover your special talents and show off what you do best.
- Grow as a performer. When you are on stage alone, it's up to you to tell a story. Learn to infuse the choreography with life and improve your skills and trainings.

Who can learn?

- Any student at any level interested can speak to us about additional details on cost, schedule, and more.
- It can be a solo, a duet, or a trio!
- Come talk to us if you are interested!

UCLA Grand Opening and Workshop for Tradition in the Near Future: Ritual Corporeality in Contemporary Taiwanese Arts, Grand Opening

STC Performing Arts' ongoing efforts to promote the cultural arts extends to all parts of Southern California. On July 21, we had the pleasure of joining the Taiwan Academy in Los Angeles to showcase the Zhen Tou related festivities and traditional ritual ceremonies involved in this cultural showcase. These temple ceremonies feature colorful parades of many different characters, including the San Tai Zi, Ba Jiang, and Guan Jiang Shou. This event is running from July 21 through September 22, so be sure to check out the exhibits and displays before they are gone! On August 5 we will be hosting a workshop "Experiencing Taiwanese Iconic Temple Tradition" at Fowler Museum in UCLA from 2-4p, to add more live festivities to this exhibition.
