Studio Announcement

Great news! DIP is offering students the opportunity to learn solos, duets, or trios to add to your dance repertoire.

Why and what are the benefits?

- Gain confidence. It is fulfilling to go through the process of learning something by yourself and achieve your goals alone. You will come away feeling like you can tackle any challenge.
- Learn about your skills and abilities. Your choreographer will create the style that will suit you and let you shine. You will discover your special talents and show off what you do best.
- Grow as a performer. When you are on stage alone, it's up to you to tell a story. Learn to infuse the choreography with life and improve your skills and trainings.

Who can learn?

- Any student at any level interested can speak to us about additional details on cost, schedule, and more.
- It can be a solo, a duet, or a trio!
- Come talk to us if you are interested!

What can you do with it?

- Enter talent shows held at your schools or local community organizations.
- Compete at renowned regional and national dance competitions.
- Opportunity to showcase your solo at events around the community DIP participates in.

Universal Studios Attraction Reveal Media Day - DreamWorks Theatre Kung Fu Panda: The Emperor's Quest

STC Performing Arts was invited by Universal Studios to take part in the media release of the new DreamWorks Theatre Kung Fu Panda: The Emperor's Quest. The special event included special appearances from many DreamWorks Animation characters including the famous Po, Mr. Ping, and Tigress, a Dragon Warrior Parade of dancers, dragon, lions, and martial artists. STC Performing Arts members put on a spectacular show drumming to dynamic beats for the entire event. With resonating melodies and the sound of rumbling drums, we are so proud of our performers and the work they put in to prepare for this performance.

Performers: Johh Hsu, Tony Chang, Jonathan Lau, Will Jaw, Jim Nguyen, David Henkels, Dennis Chen, Master Jiawang Gao, Tin Nguyen.
